The natural beauty and relaxed atmosphere of Lopez Island lends itself to creativity of all kinds and because of this it has become home for many artists. You can see a wide variety of works on display at year round exhibitions at the Lopez Community Center, The Halmet House and Post office, as well as the galleries listed here. There are lovely crafts and work of locals at the summertime Farmer's Market, and the annual Lopez Island Studio Tour is an event not to be missed.

Please don't hesitate to contact the individual studios listed here to schedule a time to view their wonderful work, and we hope that the island inspires you to express yourself artistically as well.
