Lopez Animal Protection Society Open House

10am-2pm

We'll give you the grand tour of our office area, workroom, and our two "cat" rooms. For your shopping enjoyment, we have lightly used donated pet supplies including pet beds, carriers, leashes, etc. They are yours for a small donation. We also have canvas tote bags and kitchen towels created by "Sally by the Sea." Please stop by, enjoy a cookie, and say hello.... or woof, or meow.

Location: We're located in the Village Center Building by Village Cycles.

Mud Bay Beach Event 4pm

Friends of the San Juans, the San Juan Preservation Trust, and Lopez smelt fisherman Randy O'Bryant invite you to spend an afternoon surveying for incubating surf smelt eggs and conducting a shallow water beach seine. Learn more about the fish that share your shoreline and how you can help protect and improve their habitat into the future.

Location: Mud Bay Dock Rd. Please park near the houses at the end of the road.

Please wear shoes (or ideally boots!) that can get muddy and/or wet. Rain or shine.

Adios to Lopez Land Bank Steward Potluck 12pm

Our much loved San Juan County Land Bank Steward Tim Clark is retiring after many productive years as a civil servant.

Come celebrate his service and usher him through the transition. Dine generously, share and laugh at stories of Tim's escapades. Bring pictures if they're not too scandalous.

If you would like to help with the event, please give a call!

Location: Meet us at Odlin Park, main shelter
