Brenda Asterino's Book Launch 5:30pm

On Tuesday, November 16th at 5:30pm join local author Brenda Asterino for a reading and discussion of her new book, Pathways: Walking Through Creation. Identified by the author as an opus, Pathways seems not only to have covered Earth but the universe Too! From as early as 1954, to the present pandemic moment, the poet has been recording her thoughts and feelings on innumerable subjects, which are captured in this new collection, deemed "a meditation in verse."

Thor Hanson Author Talk

On Thursday, November 18th at 6pm join author Thor Hanson for a reading and discussion of his newly published book Hurricane Lizards and Plastic Squid: The Fraught and Fascinating Biology of Climate Change, which explores the ways plants and animals adjust to climate change: move, adapt, or die. While humans dither about what our responses should be, other species have been getting on with it.
